Uniting People to End Fistula
One By One's Fifth Annual Dinner
Thursday, March 25, 2010

Event Overview

Date:	March 25, 2010
Venue:	Herban Feast, Seattle
Co-chairs:	Alison Phillips and Karen Paulsen
Expected Attendance:	300 strong community philanthropists
Financial Goal:	$100,000

Our annual Uniting People to End Fistula dinner is a wonderful opportunity to educate people about obstetric fistula, a devastating childbirth injury that impacts more than 2 million of the poorest women and girls in the developing world. The event highlights ways in which One By One works to both treat women with fistula and also endeavors to prevent fistula through education and strategic grantmaking.

To ensure that every gift is maximized to help women with fistula, One By One strives to secure adequate corporate support to offset the event expenses. We are excited to invite a wide range of businesses in the community to join us again in sponsoring the event.
